

Air Liquide recognized for supplier excellence by Texas Instruments

Air Liquide was recently recognized by Texas Instruments (TI) as part of its annual supplier awards program. For 2021, Air Liquide received TI's Supplier Excellence Award. The award honors companies whose dedication and commitment in supplying products and services meet TI's highest standards for excellence. Recipients are an elite group of suppliers chosen for their exemplary performance in the areas of cost, environmental and social responsibility, technology, responsiveness, assurance of supply and quality.

For over 50 years, Air Liquide and Texas Instruments have worked alongside each other to achieve the high quality mindset needed to meet the stringent requirements of the semiconductor industry. Air Liquide's capability to provide a seamless supply of gases, products, equipment, and services demonstrates the company's commitment to serve Texas Instruments.

Terry Humphrey, President, Air Liquide Electronics U.S. commented: "Air Liquide is honored to be awarded the Texas Instruments (TI) 2021 Supplier Excellence Award. The strong relationship between Air Liquide and Texas Instruments is a direct reflection of the hard work, dedication, and collaboration of all the teams involved. Air Liquide's commitment to supply multiple products has positioned us well to support such an innovative and diverse market leader as Texas Instruments."
